Imagine
A PLACE WHERE LEARNING NEVER STOPS

Where you start in your career at Travelers is only the beginning. With thousands of different jobs around the world, the only limit to opportunity is your ambition and imagination. What you learn in one area can lead to unexpected places, into careers you may have never imagined.

During this rotational program, you’ll experience facets of Product Management, joining either our Personal Insurance or Business Insurance Select Accounts team. After 12 weeks of training on insurance, actuarial, underwriting, and technology, you’ll work alongside members of our leadership teams, strengthening your abilities to think critically, creatively, and strategically. In the end, you’ll land an impactful Product Management role, joining a diverse group of alumni and leaders across the organization.

“As a mathematics major, I was searching for a position that would allow me to capitalize on my ‘numbers related’ background, but still allow for creative work and present me with new and rewarding challenges. The PMDP has presented me with the chance to utilize and strengthen my business and analytical skill set, while also allowing me to be a participant in a corporate culture that is both professional and extremely supportive.”

- Molly, Director of Product Management, PMDP Class of 2010

THE PRODUCT MANAGEMENT DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM CANDIDATE IS:

- A college graduate (preferred GPA 3.0 or above) with a degree in Finance, Economics, Actuarial Science, Mathematics, Risk Management, Engineering, or other related business majors.

- Passionate about learning and self-development, with excellent communication skills and some past experience in a business environment.

- Intellectually curious and an analytical thinker with the ability to handle complex concepts and solve unique problems.

What I love most about being a member of a Product Management team is the opportunity to analyze complex business problems. We leverage data and innovative solutions that engage multiple areas of our business to come up with local solutions that are ultimately implemented into the marketplace.

-Amanda, VP Product Management, PMDP Class of 2009

Our PMDP participants enjoy various opportunities to interact with peers and alumni in activities such as new hire orientation, training, and networking events.
