In this program, you’ll prepare for an impactful career underwriting and marketing our Surety and Management Liability insurance products in one of our field offices. Through on-the-job training, classroom learning, and independent experience, you will gain the knowledge and skills you need to be successful here. You’ll learn how to analyze information, evaluate risk, and build lasting relationships with our portfolios. In the end, you’ll have a challenging and stimulating career where your well-informed decisions can impact our business and our customer.

“A one of the greatest takeaways that I have learned with Travelers is that there is so much more to insurance than meets the eye. Everyday poses a new challenge, account, risk, and agent that I am able to work with. Best of all, I work with a team of knowledgeable, experienced, and helpful professionals who want to see me succeed! I am excited to continue building relationships with both my agents and colleagues, and I am looking forward to the various opportunities a career in insurance has to offer a young professional like me.” – Megan, BSI UPDP Participant
