

Imagine

A PLACE WHERE
LEARNING NEVER STOPS

Where you start in your career at Travelers is only the beginning. With thousands of different jobs around the world, the only limit to opportunity is your ambition and imagination. What you learn in one area can lead to unexpected places, into careers you may have never imagined.

As a Business Insights & Analytics Leadership Development Program participant you'll grow your ability to think analytically, while enhancing your technical and solution design skills. You'll work with cutting-edge technologies in a collaborative culture and receive hands-on training that positions you for success, all while you're learning to lead initiatives and projects. You'll forge business partnerships as you create ways to deliver value and leverage business intelligence and geospatial tools that turn insights into actionable business plans.

A BUSINESS INSIGHTS & ANALYTICS CANDIDATE HAS:

An undergraduate or graduate degree in:

- Business Information Systems
- Cognitive Science
- Computer Engineering
- Computer Science/Technology
- Economics/Econometrics
- MIS
- Mathematics
- Other data-related majors

Intellectual curiosity about utilizing data to make insights and improve process, strong judgment and decision making skills, and a passion for client service.

Learning agility for dashboarding, querying, and database technologies to influence and deliver quality projects.

A GEOSPATIAL CANDIDATE HAS:

An undergraduate or graduate degree with significant coursework in Geography or Geographic Information Sciences (GIS).

Enthusiasm and motivation to take on new technologies and innovative projects, meticulous attention to detail, and strong presentation skills.

Previous GIS or Geospatial internship experience, significant experience with ESRI ArcGIS suite, and a working knowledge of python are preferred.
