

STAYING ON TRACK WITH YOUR

PHD JOURNEY

SEPTEMBER

Apply to the PhD Project Conference.

Learn more about each university's program prior to the conference.

NOVEMBER

Remember an MBA is not required to start a doctoral program.

At the conference, better understand each faculty member's research area.

DECEMBER

Prepare for the GMAT.

Refine your analytical quantitative and qualitative skills.

JANUARY

Many universities do not charge tuition and provide stipends.

Complete all of your applications and put the finishing touches on your curriculum vitae.

MAY

Evaluate your options and make a decision.

Respond to your chosen university.

AUGUST

Start your program!
