Our policy is to provide equal employment opportunities to all applicants and Employees in all aspects of employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, ancestry, nationality, creed, citizenship, alienage, marital or domestic partnership or civil union status, pregnancy (including childbirth, lactation and related medical conditions), affectional or sexual orientation, gender identity and/or expression, mental or physical disability, veteran status, liability for military service, whistleblower status, atypical cellular or blood trait, genetic information (including testing, the refusal to submit to genetic testing and characteristics), or any other characteristic protected under federal, state, or local law and to affirmatively seek to advance the principles of equal employment opportunity.

Our commitment to equal opportunity employment applies to all persons involved in our operations and prohibits unlawful discrimination by any Employee, including supervisors and coworkers. Furthermore, the Company will recruit, hire, train, and promote persons in all job titles, and ensure that all other personnel actions are administered, without regard to any such legally protected statuses, and we will ensure that all employment decisions are based only on valid job requirements.

As President and CEO of TD Bank, I affirm that the above Equal Employment Opportunity Policy Statement and the Company’s Affirmative Action Program and Plan reflect the Company’s attitude and its intention to:

1. Recruit, hire, train and promote for all job classifications.
2. Base decisions on employment so as to further the principles of equal employment opportunity.
3. Ensure that promotion decisions are consistent with the principles of equal employment opportunity.
4. Ensure that all other personnel actions such as compensation, benefits, transfers, terminations, Company-sponsored training, tuition assistance, social and recreation programs will be administered in accordance with the principles of equal employment.
5. Take affirmative action to employ and advance in employment protected veterans and individuals with disabilities pursuant to Section 4212 of the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, as amended (VEVRAA) and Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended (Section 503).

6. Provide reasonable accommodation to known physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified Employee or applicant for employment, unless the accommodation would impose undue hardship on the operation of our business or pose a direct threat to the health and safety of the individual or others.

Overall responsibility for directing and implementing the Equal Employment Opportunity Policy as described here and the Company’s Affirmative Action Program has been assigned to the Head of US Diversity and Inclusion, who serves as the Company’s EEO Officer.

The EEO Officer’s responsibilities include designing and implementing an audit and reporting system that will:

1. Measure the effectiveness of the Company’s Affirmative Action Program.
2. Indicate any need for remedial action.
3. Determine the degree to which our objectives have been attained.
4. Determine whether individuals with known disabilities and protected veterans have had the opportunity to participate in all Company-sponsored educational, training, recreational, and social activities.
5. Measure compliance with the Company’s Affirmative Action Program’s specific obligations.

I encourage all Employees and applicants for employment to take advantage of the available opportunities provided by the Company’s Affirmative Action Plan. The Head of US Diversity and Inclusion may be contacted, during normal business hours, if you have any questions or concerns about the Company’s Affirmative Action Program or if you want to review the non-confidential portions of the Company’s Affirmative Action Program for individuals with a disability or for protected veterans.

Individuals who believe they have been subjected to any form of discrimination, or if they are aware of an incident of discrimination involving another individual, should register a complaint following the procedures set forth in the Harassment and Discrimination-Free Work Environment policy. The Company will conduct a thorough and objective investigation in a timely fashion and attempt to resolve the situation. The investigation will be completed, and a determination made and communicated to you as soon as practical. Any Employee who acts in violation of this Equal Employment Opportunity Policy will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action, up to and including immediate termination. I am sure that the entire management and staff of TD Bank will bring their considerable talents and commitments to bear in a manner that will ensure TD Bank is a leader in achieving meaningful opportunities for all.
