

Notice of Non-Discrimination

NYU Langone Hospitals, the NYU Grossman School of Medicine, NYU Grossman Long Island School of Medicine and NYU Langone Health (collectively referred to herein as “NYU Langone”) prohibit and will not tolerate discrimination or harassment based on race, color, creed, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity or expression, transgender status, gender dysphoria, genetic information, marital status, partnership status, caregiver status, familial status, age, national origin, citizenship status, age, disability, military or veteran status, or any other protected class as established by law in its programs and activities.

NYU Langone prohibits unlawful harassment of students, employees, patients and third parties on the basis of any protected characteristic as identified above.

NYU Langone also prohibits retaliation against any individual for the purpose of interfering with any right or privilege secured by NYU Langone policy or law, or because the individual makes a good faith report or formal complaint, testifies, assists, participates, or refuses to participate in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under NYU Langone policies that prohibit discrimination, harassment, and/or retaliation.

NYU Langone has designated the Manager, Title IX and Inclusion, Senior Director for Employee Labor and Relations, and Senior Director, Patient Experience to coordinate compliance with federal and state civil rights laws regarding protected characteristics, including Title IX and those other laws and regulations referenced above:
